Leicester City

Leicester is a small city in the East Midlands of England. It is located between the River Soar and the forest of Leicestershire. It is 165.4 far from the capital city, London.

Leicester has a very important immigration community: People from Poland, Ireland, Kenya, Uganda and Asian countries went to live and work in this city. They live in new boroughs like Hinckley and Melton, that's why you can hear different languages, there.

Now, Leicester is famous for its football team, called the foxes. They play at King Power Stadium which is located in Midtown. This year, they have become champions of England for the first time in their history. Our Algerian RiyadMahrez played a great role for that. He is elected the best player in England. Wow!
